1.5 Enforcement of the Policy

The Policy, which came into force on 22.22.2222 and regulated by İPM Endüstriyel Madencilik A.Ş., is published on the company's website (www.ipmindustries.com) and made available to data subjects.

2. PROTECTION OF PERSONAL DATA

2.1 Security of Personal Data

Under the Law, our company takes all necessary administrative and technical measures to ensure the appropriate level of security to store personal data securely and to prevent illegal processing and access to personal data. The administrative and technical measures taken regarding the security of personal data are detailed in the Personal Data Storage and Destruction Policy of our company.

Our company has established the “Personal Data Protection Management System” to ensure compliance with the regulations in the Law and other legislation and it has created Personal Data Protection Committee within its body to ensure the implementation of the policy and other related policies.

2.2 Supervision

Our company conducts the necessary supervision to establish the data security described above and to ensure the regularity and continuity of the measures taken. The Personal Data Protection Committee supervises the measures taken for the security of personal data.

2.3 Privacy

Our company takes all necessary administrative and technical measures according to technological facilities and application costs to ensure that the relevant data controllers and processors do not disclose their data to anyone in violation of the provisions of Law and Policy and do not use it for processing. In this context, information and training activities about the Law and Policy are carried out for the employees of the company, and confidentiality agreements are signed as part of the recruitment processes of the employees.

2.4 Unauthorized Disclosure of Personal Data

If the personal data processed by our company is obtained by others in ways that are not under the law, our company shall take the necessary actions to inform the data subject and the Board within the periods determined by the Board of this situation. If necessary, this shall be announced on the website of the Board or by any other method deemed appropriate by the Board.

2.5 Protection of Legal Rights of Data Subjects

Our company respects and takes all necessary measures to protect the legal rights of data subjects concerning the enforcement of the Policy and the Law.

2.6 Protection of Sensitive Personal Data

Data related to race, ethnic origin, political opinions, philosophical beliefs, religion, sect or other beliefs, appearance and dressing, membership of an association, foundation or trade-union, health, sexual life, criminal conviction and security measures, and biometrics and genetics are sensitive personal data. Our company is aware of the fact that sensitive personal data is data that, if learned by others, could cause the data subject to be suffered or discriminated, and therefore takes the appropriate measures determined by the Board to protect such personal data, which is processed under the law, with precision. Within this framework, it has a separate policy (Security Policy of Sensitive Personal Data) and a systematic procedure, clearly defined, manageable, and sustainable.

3. PROCESSING AND TRANSFER OF PERSONAL DATA

3.1 General Principles of Processing and Transfer of Personal Data

Personal data is processed by our company under the procedures and principles set out in the Law and this policy. Our company complies with the following principles when processing personal data.

3.1.1 Conforming with the Law and Good Faith

Our company processes and uses personal data under the relevant legislation and the requirements of good faith. Following the principle of conforming with good faith, our Company considers the interests and reasonable expectations of data subjects when trying to achieve its objectives in data processing. It acts in a way that prevents the appearance of results that the data subject does not expect and does not need to expect. Under the principle, it also ensures that the data processing in question is transparent for the data subject and acts under the notifying and warning obligations.

3.1.1 Being Accurate and Up to Date if Necessary

Our company ensures that the personal data it processes is accurate and up-to-date, taking into account the fundamental rights and legitimate interests of data subjects. In this context, it considers carefully the issues such as certainty of sources from which data is obtained, confirmation of its accuracy, evaluation of whether it needs to be updated. Our company keeps channels open to ensure that information on the data subject is accurate and up-to-date at all times under the due diligence. Keeping personal data accurate and up-to-date is essential in protecting the interests of our company as well as in protecting the fundamental rights and freedoms of data subjects.

3.1.1 Being Processed for Specified, Explicit, and Legitimate Purposes

Our company determines the purpose of data processing clearly and precisely and ensures that this purpose is legitimate. If the purpose is legitimate, it means that the personal data our company processes are related to and necessary for the work it has performed or the service it has provided. Our company does not process data for other purposes other than those stated. In this respect, it is sensitive to compliance with the principle of certainty and clarity in legal transactions and texts in which personal data processing purposes are explained.

3.1.2 Being Relevant, Limited and Proportionate to the Purposes for which Data is Processed

Our company considers the personal data processed to be convenient for the achievement of the stated objectives and avoids the processing of data that is not relevant to the achievement of the purpose or that is not needed. Our company does not collect or process personal data for purposes that do not exist and are considered to occur later. It performs the processing conditions set out in the act as if it is the first time it has started processing data to fulfill the needs that are likely to arise later. It also limits the processed data to only what is needed to achieve the purpose. Within the scope of the principle of proportionality, it creates a reasonable balance between data processing and its intended purpose.

3.1.3 Being Stored Only for the Time Specified in Relevant Legislation or Required for Processing Purpose

Our company complies with these conditions if there is a period stipulated in the relevant legislation to store the data; otherwise, it shall only store the personal data for the period required for the purpose for which it is processed. In the absence of a valid reason for further storage of personal data by our company, such data is deleted, destroyed or anonymized. The procedures for storing and destroying personal data are detailed in the Personal Data Storage and Destruction Policy of our company.

3.2 Conditions of Processing Personal Data

Our company does not process personal data without the explicit consent of the data subject. Personal data may only be processed in the event of one of the following conditions without the explicit consent of the data subject:

3.2.1 It is expressly permitted by any law

Our company may process personal data without seeking the explicit consent of the data subject, as expressly permitted by any law.

3.2.2 It is necessary to protect the life or physical integrity of the data subject or another person where the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent

Our company may process personal data without seeking explicit consent to protect the life or physical integrity of data subjects where they are physically or legally incapable of giving consent.

3.2.3 It is necessary to process personal data of parties of a contract, provided that the processing is directly related to the execution or performance of the contract

If the processing of personal data of the parties of a contract is necessary directly related to the execution or performance of a contract, as a natural flow of life, our company may process personal data of data subjects without explicit consent, limited to this purpose.

3.2.4 It is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation which our company is subject to

Our company may process the personal data of the data subject without seeking explicit consent when it is necessary to fulfill its legal obligations as a data controller.

3.2.5 The relevant information is manifestly made public by the data subject herself/himself

Our company may process the personal data of data subjects, which is manifestly made public by them, in other words, revealed to the public in any way, only for this purpose (manifestly made public) in case it is accepted that the legal interest which should be protected in the processing of such data, which is manifestly made public by data subjects and thus becomes known to all, has been eliminated.

3.2.6 It is necessary for the institution, usage, or protection of a right

Our company may process the personal data of data subjects without explicit consent where it is legally necessary to process data for the usage or protection of a legitimate right.

3.2.7 It is necessary for the legitimate interests of the data controller, provided that the fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject are not harmed

Our company may process the personal data of data subjects in cases where the processing of personal data is necessary to ensure the legitimate interests of the data controller, without harming the fundamental rights and freedoms protected under the Law and Policy. Our company is sensitive to comply with the basic principles regarding the protection of personal data and to observe the balance of interests between our company and data subjects. Legitimate interest is an effective, specific, and already existing one that can compete with the fundamental rights and freedom of the data subject. Our company takes additional protective measures to prevent damage to the rights of the data subject. A reasonable balance is achieved between the interests of our company and the fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject.

3.3 Conditions of Processing Sensitive Personal Data

Our Company does not process sensitive personal data without the explicit consent of the data subject. Sensitive personal data may only be processed in the event of one of the following conditions without the explicit consent of the data subject:

3.3.1 It is expressly permitted by any law

Sensitive personal data other than the health and sexual life of the data subject may be processed without the explicit consent of the data subject, where it is expressly permitted by law.

3.3.2 Planning and management of health services and financing for public health protection, preventive medicine, medical diagnosis, treatment, and care services

Sensitive personal data related to the health and sexual life of the data subject may be processed by persons under the obligation to keep secrets or by authorized institutions and organizations, for public health protection, preventive medicine, medical diagnosis, treatment and care services, planning and management of health services and financing.

3.4 Conditions of Personal Data Transfer

Our company may transfer personal data to third parties based on one or more of the following personal data processing conditions under Article 8 of the Law by taking the necessary security measures:

- The explicit consent of the data subject,
- A clear regulation regarding the transfer of personal data in the law,
- Personal data transfer is necessary for the protection of the life or physical integrity of the data subject or anyone else, and when the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent, or his/her consent is not granted legal validity,
- It is necessary to transfer personal data of parties of a contract, provided that it is directly related to the execution or performance of the contract,
- It is necessary to transfer personal data for our company to fulfill its legal obligation,
- The relevant information manifestly made public by the data subject herself/himself,
- It is necessary to transfer personal data for the institution, usage, or protection of a right,
- It is necessary to transfer personal data for the legitimate interests of our company, provided that the fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject are not harmed.

Sensitive personal data may be transferred based on one of the following conditions and provided that adequate measures are taken on a limited basis:

- The explicit consent of the data subject,
- A clear regulation in the Law regarding the transfer of sensitive personal data of the data subject other than the health and sexual life,

- Sensitive personal data related to the health and sexual life of the data subject may be transferred by persons under the obligation to keep secrets or by authorized institutions and organizations, for public health protection, preventive medicine, medical diagnosis, treatment and care services, planning and management of health services and financing.

3.4.1 Conditions of Personal Data Transfer Abroad

Our company may transfer personal data abroad with the explicit consent of the data subject under Article 9 of the Law by taking the necessary security measures.

Besides, in case of the existence of one of the conditions specified in Article 5(2) and Article 6(3) of the Law, our company may transfer personal data without the explicit consent of the data subject only to foreign countries declared to have adequate protection by the Board or in the absence of adequate protection, to foreign countries where data controllers in Turkey and the relevant foreign country undertake adequate protection in written and have the permission of the Board without prejudice to the provisions of the International Convention to which Turkey is a party.
